Dear Director Casey:

On behalf of the Pennsylvania Political Union, it is my pleasure to invite you to be our guest this autumn at the University of Pennsylvania. Many students here are most eager to meet with you and to hear you speak, and we would be delighted if you could join us for an evening.

Each year the Pennsylvania Political Union, a non-partisan forum for political debate and discussion, hosts a number of speakers of national and international stature, as an integral part of our program to promote dialogue on important issues. Recent guests of the Union include George McGovern, John Kenneth Galbraith, Paul McCloskey, Ellsworth Bunker, John Anderson, Ed Clark, and W. Averell Harriman. We would be honored to have you join this distinguished list.

The topic and format of your presentation would be entirely up to you. Almost any evening, Monday through Thursday, between mid-September and early December, would be convenient. Due to charter prohibitions, we cannot offer an honorarium. We can, however, provide meals and overnight accommodations, as well as reimbursement of your travel expenses.

If you have any questions about the Union or about the arrangements for your visit, please feel free to contact me. I am looking forward to hearing from you and particularly hope to have the honor and pleasure of welcoming you to Penn this autumn.

Sincerely,

Andrew B. Feiler
